Chinese Railway Timetable - April 2007 Edition

SUPPLEMENT No. 1

Introduction

This supplement is designed to be used in conjunction with the April 2007 edition of my Chinese Railway Timetable. Read together these show the service applicable from 1 July to 30 September 2007, at which point, and dependent on events, I plan to produce Supplement No. 2. Further information about my timetables can be found on my website - link below.

The supplement consists of 16 pages and is arranged as follows:

Pages 3-8	Train List - Gives details, in Table number order, of changes to services since publication of my April 2007 timetable.
Pages 9-13	Quick Reference Timetable - Complete replacement for pages 27 to 31 of my April 2007 timetable. Pages 26 & 32 remain unaltered.
Page 14	Trains Not Running Daily (Part 2) - Gives details of those trains which run on alternate days only, and is a complete replacement for page 36 of my April 2007 timetable. This page now includes details of which destination is served on which day.
Page 15	Table 15# & 18# - Shows 'local' D trains between Nanjing, Shanghai & Hangzhou, and is a complete replacement for page 81 of my April 2007 timetable.
Page 16	Table 20T# - Shows the complete service of express trains between Guangzhou and Shenzhen, and is a complete replacement for page 118 of my April 2007 timetable. The information in Table 20T (as amended by this supplement) remains valid for all trains not shown in Table 20T#.

Main features of the 1 July timetable change are:

1. Due to delayed delivery of rolling stock most (but not all) of the 'D' trains due to commence service on 1 July are postponed until further notice.
2. A number of 'D' trains now make additional stops, generally without extension of journey time.
3. The Guang-Shen line (Guangzhou-Shenzhen - Table 20T / 20T#) timetable has been subjected to major alteration yet again.
4. A number of trains previously stopping at Wuchang no longer do so, or now stop at Hankou instead.
5. Some new trains, including one from Shenyang Bei to Fuzhou and return, via Tianjin, Fuyang, Nanchang and Wuyishan (Tables 1/1#/43(N)/43(S)/18/19).

In addition the opportunity has been taken to include information about the days of running of alternate day services (see page 14), and to correct some errors found in the timetable.

How to use this supplement

Use the April 2007 edition of my full Chinese Railway Timetable to plan your itinerary, taking note of table, page and train numbers of each train in which you are interested. Note that within each page trains are listed in hierarchical order (D/Z/T/K/N/no prefix).

Check your list against the Train List in this Supplement (pages 3 to 8). If 'your' train is not listed this means that the information shown in the April 2007 timetable remains correct. If it is listed take note of the information given, in conjunction with the timetable. Note that only changes are shown, for example if times are changed only at some stations, unaffected stations are not shown - if a train ceases to call at a station this is stated.

Times are shown as in the following examples:

08a57 - arrival time

12 34 - departure time

16 06/15 - arrival/departure time at intermediate station

The supplement includes complete re-issues of Tables 15# (Nanjing-Shanghai), 18# (Shanghai-Hangzhou) and 20T# (Guangzhou-Shenzhen), and a partial re-issue of the Quick Reference Timetable. Note that those trains appearing in both Table 20T and Table 20T# are only updated in Table 20T#.

The information in this supplement is somewhat complex; if you have any difficulty in interpreting it, or would like to confirm specific itineraries please feel free to contact me. I am happy to provide this service for registered timetable purchasers and will assist others as far as practicable. I hope you find the supplement useful - feedback is welcome as always.
